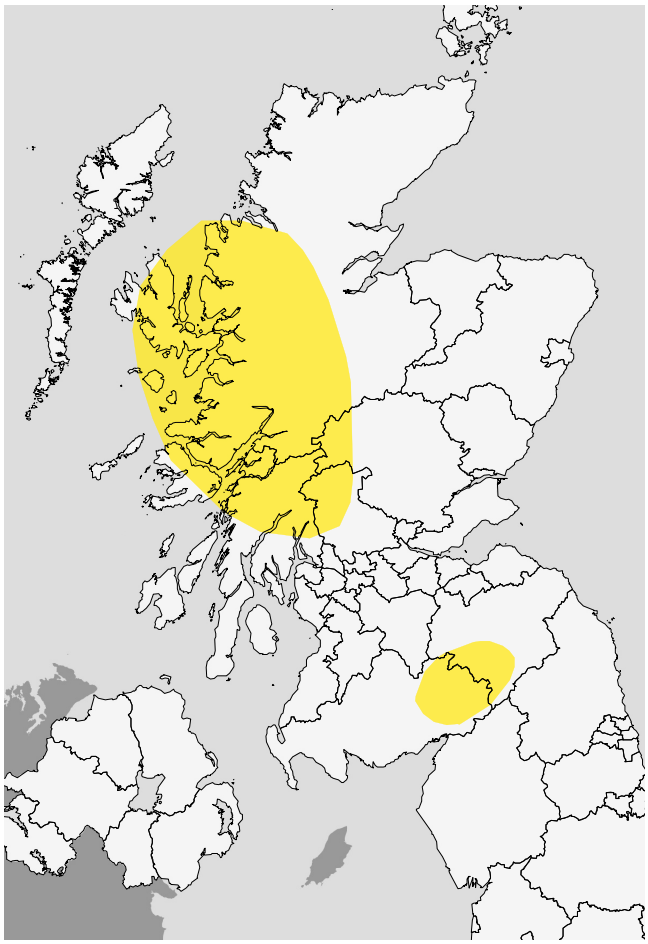
Yellow warning
Rain

Between
06:00 Sat 7 Mar 2020 and
23:59 Sat 7 Mar 2020



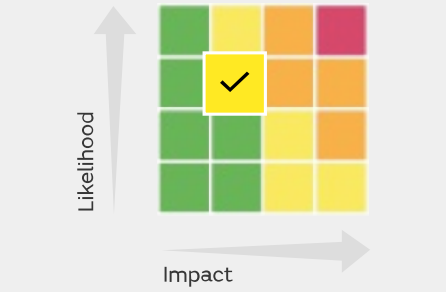
Heavy rain and some snow melt may lead to some travel disruption through Saturday.

What to expect

- Bus and train services probably affected with journey times taking longer
- Spray and flooding on roads probably making journey times longer
- Flooding of a few homes and businesses is possible

Further details

Outbreaks of rain will become persistent and occasionally heavy through Saturday across much of Western Scotland and parts of Southern Scotland. 20-30mm will fall widely across the warning area in 15-18 hours with 50-70mm building up on some hills. This, in combination with a partial thaw of lying snow is likely to lead to some flooding in a few places. Rain will clear southeastwards through Saturday evening to be replaced by scattered showers. Strong to gale force southwesterly winds may also exacerbate tricky travel conditions.



Medium likelihood of low impacts
